

CUMBERLAND
CITY COUNCIL

Conditions of RFX

1. INTERPRETATION OF REQUEST MATERIALS

- 1.1. Terms defined in the General Conditions of Contract (the Contract) have those meanings in the RFX Documents unless the context otherwise requires.
- 1.2. The Conditions of RFX does not form part of the Contract.
- 1.3. The Request Documents are:
 - (a) these conditions of RFX (Conditions of RFX), the offer RFX form (if required) (RFX Offer Form), and the response schedules (RFX Response Schedules);
 - (b) the Formal Instrument of Agreement (if required);
 - (c) the Contract including the schedules to the General Conditions of Contract;
 - (d) the Specification/Scope of Work including attachments (if any); and
 - (e) all addenda (if any) to the RFX Documents issued to Respondents by Council.
- 1.4. The Respondent is the person who submits a submission and who is identified in the Key Business Details and/or RFX Offer Form.
- 1.5. The Information Documents are:
 - (a) all information, data, test results, samples, reports or documents provided to the Respondent by the Council, the Council's representative or the Council's servants, agents or consultants which are expressly stated to be "Information Documents" or which do not form part of the RFX Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, any virtual site inspections (including videos or images of the site) constitute Information Documents; and
 - (b) any other information, data or document which is referred to or incorporated by reference in the information, data or documents referred to in paragraph (a) above.
- 1.6. Boxed text in the Scope of Works identified as "NOTE TO RESPONDENTS" (if any) comprises either instructions to the Respondent to amend the Scope of Works and/or the drawings, or instructions on the pricing of parts of the Works (which may be identified as options or alternatives). If the note contains instructions to amend the Scope of Works and/or the drawings, the Respondent must prepare its RFX based on those documents amended as instructed.

The Scope of Works and the drawings will be adjusted accordingly before the Contract is executed, and the note removed.

2. ENQUIRIES

- 2.1. If the Respondent has any doubt as to the meaning of any part of the RFX, enquiries concerning the RFX must be directed to the Nominated Contact Person via the eProcure Question Forum.
- 2.2. Respondents' names will be made available on receipt of apparently bona fide enquiries. Whether or not any enquiry received is "bona fide" for the purposes of this clause 2.2 is a matter for the Council in its absolute discretion.

3. STATUS OF RFX

- 3.1. The Respondent is invited to provide a submission in accordance with these Conditions of RFX.
- 3.2. The invitation to respond in clause 3.1 is an invitation to treat. It is not an offer capable of acceptance, nor should it be relied upon, construed or interpreted as such.
- 3.3. By submitting a submission, the Respondent acknowledges that the submission does not create a contract between the Respondent and the Council.
- 3.4. Without limiting any clause of the Conditions of Participation:
 - (a) Respondents acknowledge that no agreement has been formed between the Council and a Respondent as a result of the RFX process such that the Council is limited or constrained in the way in which it can deal with a Respondent's offer other than (if at all) as set out in these Conditions of RFX; and,
 - (b) The Council will not be liable to any Respondent for any loss or damage suffered by a Respondent arising out of or in connection with any act or omission of the Council in respect of the invitation to RFX in clause 3.1, the subject matter of this invitation to submit a response, the RFX Documents, any RFX, the evaluation of submissions, the termination of the RFX process or the award of a contract for the Works/Services (whether to a Respondent or someone else).
 - (c) Acceptance of any offer or tender does not fetter Council in the operations of its functions including any consideration and approval or refusal of any application related to the proposed land.

4. SUBMISSION

- 4.1. A submission must be made by fully completing, dating and executing the RFX Offer Form (if required) and completing, the RFX Schedules, and attaching to the RFX Schedules all information required by those schedules. If an addendum has been issued, the completed 'acknowledgment of addendum' form must be lodged with the RFX.
- 4.2. The amount submitted is for performing the Services/Works strictly in accordance with the requirements of the RFX Documents and is deemed to include all incidental and all contingent costs, expenses and profit.

5. LODGEMENT

- 5.1. There are two approved methods available for lodging a submission i.e. electronically or manually. Council may, in its absolute discretion choose which of the two approved methods apply in accordance with the Conditions of RFX.
- 5.2. All RFX lodgements, whether submitted; manually or electronically; are to be submitted in the appropriate manner prior to the closing time and date as detailed on the Electronic Portal: eProcure.
- 5.3. An RFX submission must contain the original RFX, completed in accordance with clause 4.
- 5.4. All costs associated with the preparation and submission of the RFX shall be borne by the Respondent.
- 5.5. Electronic lodgement is preferred and will only be accepted through the Electronic Tender Portal: <https://www.eprocure.com.au/cumberland/>
- 5.6. Using the eProcure portal will allow Respondents to answer each of the criteria response questions as detailed in clause 17 of this Document. This is a self-contained software program and allows Respondents to attach files to any of the questions as part of their response.

- 5.7. If the Respondent encounters technical difficulties during the lodgement process, then it may contact the following help desk: 1800 377 628.
- 5.8. Manual lodgement, in accordance with this Conditions of RFX and complete in all respects, must be submitted by the Respondent in a sealed envelope and marked with the RFX number and title, and placed in the Tender Box located in the lobby of Cumberland City Council Administration building, 16 Memorial Avenue, Merrylands.
- 5.9. Submissions delivered by any other means or to any other address will not be accepted.

6. LATE LODGEMENT

- 6.1. A submission lodged after the Closing Time will not be accepted. The Council will notify the Respondent promptly should its submission or submissions (as relevant) be received late.
- 6.2. Electronic submissions must be received in their entirety, and not merely dispatched, prior to the system being shut down. Electronic submissions not received in their entirety will not be considered by the Council.
- 6.3. Lodgement of submissions on time is entirely the Respondent's responsibility.

7. NON-DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

- 7.1. The RFX Documents and any documents made available by the Council for the information of Respondents (including the Information Documents) (Confidential Information) are confidential and are furnished to the Respondent on that basis. The Respondent must comply with the obligations set out in the Contract in dealing with all Confidential Information as if it was the Service Provider/Contractor referred to in that clause.
- 7.2. Except as required by law, the amount of each submission received will not be disclosed or otherwise made public by the Council.

8. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- 8.1. Respondents must notify the Council as soon as practical after becoming aware of an actual or potential Conflict of Interest at any time prior to receiving notification of the award of a contract or the termination of the RFX process.
- 8.2. If the Respondent has or may have an actual or potential Conflict of Interest, the Council may, at its discretion:
 - (a) exclude the submission from further consideration; or
 - (b) impose conditions on the Respondent for the management of the actual or potential Conflict of Interest.
- 8.3. If the Respondent is unable or unwilling to comply with the conditions imposed under clause 8.2 (b) or otherwise resolve the actual or potential Conflict of Interest in a manner satisfactory to the Council, the Council may, at its discretion, exclude the submission from further consideration.
- 8.4. For the purposes of this clause 8, the terms:
 - (a) "Conflict of Interest" means when the Respondent could be seen to influence a council officer / staff member (employed on a permanent, causal or contractual basis) due to a Non-Pecuniary Interest or a Pecuniary Interest;

- (b) “Non-Pecuniary Interest” means any private or personal interest the Respondent or any of its employees may have with a council officer / staff member or councillor which does not relate to financial gain (e.g. kinship, friendship, membership in an association, society etc.), or involvement or interest in any activity; and
- (c) “Pecuniary Interest” is a financial interest that a council officer / staff member or councillor or relatives, partners and associates has with a Respondent because of a likelihood or expectation of financial gain or loss.

9. INFORMATION DOCUMENTS

9.1. The Respondent:

- (a) must not in any way rely upon:
 - i. any Information Document or any other data, representation, statement or document made by or provided to Respondents by the Council or anyone on behalf of the Council which will not form part of the eventual contract with the Council for the performance of the Services/Works; or
 - ii. the accuracy, adequacy, suitability or completeness of the Information Documents or any other such information, data, representation, statement or document;

17.8. RFXs must be executed in the manner indicated below:

- (a) In accordance with 4.1 and 4.2, the Respondent declares that the statements and information provided by the Respondent in the RFX are true and accurate, and accepts that no physical signature or seal is required for the offer to be effective and binding and that the Respondent by submitting this electronic response is an Authorised Delegate executing the RFX in accordance with section 9 of the NSW Electronic Transactions Act 2000 No 8.
- (b) The RFX Schedules issued to the Respondent as a part of the RFX Documents, must be completed in full and executed by the Respondent, as required. Failure to include, or to complete, any of the RFX Schedules may render the submission non-conforming. An RFX Schedule is deemed to be not completed in full if any document called for in that RFX Schedule is not provided with the submission.

17.9. Should the Respondent's submission be successful, all or part of the information may be incorporated into the Contract as an obligation of, or restriction on, the Contractor.

17.10. All the RFX Schedules must be completed to furnish and contain all the required information.

17.11. Council may use the Respondents response to a RFX Schedule for one criteria in the evaluation of any criteria.

17.12. Council may undertake due diligence of any submission, but not necessarily all submissions, including:

- (a) regarding the financial position and viability of the submission and any associated risks;
- (b) referee checks;

- (c) past final performance reports between the Respondent and Council from previous work undertaken with Council; and
 - (d) such other matters as Council considers necessary.
- 17.13. Council may obtain information from other sources, including financial reporting agencies, for the purpose of clause 17.9.
- 17.14. Council may take into account any information obtained pursuant to clause 19 in evaluating or selecting a submission.

18. VARIATION OF RFX

- 18.1. Before the Council accepts any of the received submissions, a person who has submitted a submission may, subject to this clause 18, vary the submission:
- (a) by providing the Council with further information by way of explanation or clarification, or
 - (b) by correcting a mistake or anomaly.
- 18.2. Such a variation may be made either:
- (a) at the request of the Council, or
 - (b) with the consent of the Council at the request of the Respondent, but only if, in the circumstances, it appears reasonable to the Council to allow the Respondent to provide the information or to correct the anomaly.
- 18.3. If a submission is varied in accordance with this clause 18, the Council must notify in writing all other Respondents who have lodged a submission with the same or similar characteristics as the varied submission, and provide them with the opportunity to vary their submissions in a similar way.
- 18.4. If the Council considers that a Respondent has made an unintentional error of form in its submission, the Council may, at its sole discretion, permit the Respondent to correct that error, but will not permit the Respondent to submit new or different information that would materially alter the original submission.

19. ALTERNATIVE SUBMISSIONS AND EXECUTION

- 19.1. Council may consider an alternative submission by a Respondent that does not comply with the requirements of the RFX. The Council will not consider an alternative proposal unless the alternative proposal is:
- (a) submitted together with a submission that is a complying submission and addresses the requirements of the RFX;
 - (b) clearly identified as an alternative submission;
 - (c) compliant with all essential requirements identified in the RFX;
 - (d) fully described by the Respondent, including:
 - i. the advantages, disadvantages, limitations and capability of the alternative proposal; and
 - ii. the extent to which the adoption of the alternative proposal would impact upon the RFX that addresses the requirements of the RFX including any financial impact, impact on the provision of the Works and any other consequences of the alternative proposal; and
 - iii. contains sufficient and verifiable supporting information and data to enable a comparison of the alternative proposal against other submissions.

- 19.2. Without limiting any clause of the Conditions of RFX, the Council may, in its absolute discretion and without being under any obligation to do so:
- (a) reject or otherwise not consider;
 - (b) evaluate or otherwise consider; or
 - (c) accept,
any alternative submission.

20. ACCEPTANCE OF SUBMISSION

- 20.1. The Council is not bound to accept the lowest price or any submission.
- 20.2. The Council will not be responsible for or pay for any costs, losses or expenses suffered or incurred by the Respondent out of or in the connection with the preparation and submissions.
- 20.3. A submission will not be deemed to have been accepted and no contract in respect of the Services/Works will arise between any Respondent and the Council until the successful Respondent and the Council execute the Contract by signing the Formal Instrument of Agreement or where the value is less than $50,000, when Council issues a Purchase Order.

21. DISCLOSURE OF SUBMISSIONS AND CONTRACT INFORMATION

- 21.1. The Council will publish details of submissions and any contract awarded as a result of this RFX process in accordance with the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (NSW) and Premier's Memorandum M2007-01.

22. TERMINATION OF PROCESS

- 22.1. The Council may terminate the RFX process at any time.
- 22.2. The Council will notify all Respondents of the termination of the RFX process.
- 22.3. The Council will not be liable to the Respondent for any costs, losses, damages or expenses suffered or incurred by the Respondent in preparing or lodging its submission or in respect of any discussions, enquiries or negotiations undertaken by the Respondent after lodging its submission, whether or not the RFX process is terminated by the Council.

23. DISCRETION OF THE COUNCIL

- 23.1. The Council reserves the right at any time and on any grounds to:
- (a) amend the RFX Documents, the Scope of Works/Specification or the Services/Works;
 - (b) readvertise for new RFXs;
 - (c) terminate at any time further participation in the process by any or all Respondents;
 - (d) amend or terminate the RFX process;
 - (e) extend the Closing Time for RFXs;
 - (f) alter the approach during any negotiations;
 - (g) require additional information or clarification (including presentations) from any Respondent and use or not use such information in the evaluation;
 - (h) elect not to select any Respondent as preferred Respondent; or

- (i) withdraw the invitation to RFX.

24. NON-CONFORMING SUBMISSIONS

24.1. Any submission may be regarded as non-conforming and excluded from further participation if:

- (a) the Respondent is or becomes insolvent, bankrupt or subject to external administration;
- (b) the submission is clearly incomplete or clearly non-competitive; or
- (c) the Respondent makes a representation or warranty that is false or misleading.

25. PROBITY ADVISER

25.1. The Council may appoint a probity advisor to monitor the RFX process. The probity adviser will be an observer of the RFX process and will not be involved the detailed evaluation of any submissions.
