

Message from the Mayor Councillor Lisa Lake

We need better infrastructure such as improved local roads and footpaths, upgraded parks, playgrounds and sportsgrounds, bigger libraries, new community rooms, modernised swimming facilities and enhanced town centres.

And we need more targeted services – for our children, young people, families, disabled and seniors.

In its first term, the Council developed key strategies and plans for these priorities. It is now my job, and the job of my fellow Councillors, to ensure that these strategies and plans are implemented.

Council recently placed its four year Delivery Program and our Operational Plan for the 2022-23 year on public exhibition.

Feedback received from the public exhibition of these documents will be considered by Council in the coming weeks, before we finalise and adopt the budget for next year.

Apart from a sizeable program to improve infrastructure and services, the plan also supports strategic local sectors such as small business for jobs growth, arts and culture for multicultural activities, and the natural environment for its protection and replenishment.

I'm excited about this plan and seeing these projects and programs come to life to deliver very tangible improvements for our community.

What I know as a local Councillor is that the people of Cumberland care deeply about our local area and have a great deal of knowledge and experience to share.

I'm really looking forward to working further with you over the coming months to advance our interests.

See you around,
Mayor Lisa Lake

Welcome to our first edition of Community News for this new Term of Cumberland Council. If you don't know me already, I'm Lisa Lake, the new Mayor and it's my great pleasure to introduce myself and the Winter edition of this newsletter to you.

On the night of my election as Mayor, I said that I was committed to leading a Council of substance that was outwardly focussed and that delivered on the ground for our rapidly expanding population.

We are a great community – generous, caring, resilient and smart. But we also face many challenges.

Sign up your 2022-born child to Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

Parents are encouraged to sign up their newborn children, born in Cumberland this year to Dolly Parton's Imagination Library.

This free book-gifting program is devoted to inspire the love of reading by sending a free brand new, age-appropriate book in the mail each month to every registered child, until they turn five.

The early literacy intervention program is a joint initiative between Cumberland City Council, Western Sydney Local Health District and United Way Australia, designed to help develop better educational outcomes for children.

Cumberland Mayor Lisa Lake said, "Early childhood literacy is critical for brain and language development. With the early childhood census data showing children in Cumberland City are lagging below the state average when it comes to literacy and communication skills, this would be a practical approach to better equip young children and provide them with the resources to advance their literacy skills."

Parents are also being encouraged to register their child into the program through the online parent portal <https://imaginationlibrary.com/au>, or at their nearest Cumberland City Library.

Winners of Cumberland's Local Citizen of the Year and Community Pride Awards

Two remarkable residents and an organisation have been recognised for their hard work and dedication to serving their community, as part of Cumberland City Council's Local Citizen of the Year and Community Pride Awards.

The awards acknowledge the contributions of individuals and organisations that make an outstanding impact on the community. This year's winners include Nargis Karimi who won the Local Young Citizen of the Year, Ismail Shah Jafari who won in two categories, the Community Pride Award and the Local Citizen of the Year Award, and Good360, an organisation awarded The Community Pride Award.

Mayor Lisa Lake congratulated the winners on their efforts.

"These awards allow us to recognise the achievements of remarkable individuals and groups in our local community. It's such a pleasure to see members of our community selflessly devoting their time and energy to making Cumberland a great place to live," said Mayor Lisa Lake.

The Mayor also recognised others who contributed to the awards.

"Congratulations to our finalists, winners and to everyone that took the time to make a nomination," said Mayor Lisa Lake.

The awards were a part of Council's Australia Day celebrations program held earlier this year, in conjunction with a special Australia Day Citizenship Ceremony.

Community Pride Award and Local Citizen of the Year - Ismail Shah Jafari

Ismail Shah Jafari has been dedicated to helping new migrants and refugees settle into the community. He frequently volunteers his time cooking and cleaning at the Australian Afghan Hassanian Youth Association centre.

Local Young Citizen of the Year - Nargis Karimi

Nargis Karimi has been recognised for her hard work in helping residents who have been impacted by COVID-19 directly or had lost work by providing support and relief through a food package delivery program.

Community Pride Award - Susan Wallis and Tom Sawkins from Good360

Good360 is small not-for-profit organisation of 25 people, located in Smithfield, who have been critical in supporting schools throughout the pandemic by providing free PPE, cleaning supplies and other essentials.

Youth Week

Hundreds of young people in Cumberland gathered to mark Youth Week celebrations. The annual week allows children and teenagers aged between 12 - 24 the opportunity to freely express their views and share ideas while celebrating their roles in our community. This year, Council hosted two standout events, the World Traditional Games and Westarz Nite.

Mayor Lisa Lake said, "Youth Week is a great opportunity for our young people to get involved in our community. I'm so glad and proud that Council can support events of this nature that help nurture youth development and growth by allowing young people to express themselves in a safe and supported environment. It was great to see our youth actively participating in these events and having fun while making their voices heard to influence change."

Council would like to acknowledge and give a special thanks to all young people who helped make the week so special.

Senior's Festival

Senior residents in Cumberland City celebrated a vibrant and jam-packed program at this year's Senior's Festival.

The annual festival has been hailed a success, hitting the ground running, treating our seniors to a host of activities and events including an adventurous bus trip to the Central Coast, fitness workshops, talent shows, morning teas, health and technology webinars and more.

The theme this year for the NSW Senior's Festival was 'Reconnect', with the program designed to highlight the important roles seniors play in our society by providing opportunities for seniors to re-connect and become more actively involved in the community.

After an eventful two weeks, our senior community in Cumberland City are now gearing up for a busy and lively program next year.

Merrylands Civic Square Updates

The Merrylands Civic Square is on its way to be transformed into a new space for the community, fitted out with large native trees, public art, furniture and amenities including bike racks, water fountains, smart bins, smart light poles, tables and benches.

The new space will provide a unique gathering place for cultural gatherings and events, as well as social activities, given its ideal location and proximity to local retail outlets and businesses.

The redevelopment of the site will see the remodelling of the existing carpark and old arcade turned into a vibrant new multifunctional recreation space for locals and visitors.

Cumberland Mayor Lisa Lake welcomed the proposed project, adding it will provide a boost to Merrylands' night life and economy.

"The new Civic Square will provide an opportunity to bring diverse cultures together and provide the community with a unique and interesting place for family and friends to come together and foster a feeling of pride and appeal. Not only will it be a great place to enjoy and take part in community life, it will also support the local economy and assist in developing the night life," said Mayor Lisa Lake.

The Civic Square, which has secured $5.5 million state funding from the NSW Public Spaces Legacy Program, is part of the broader infrastructure upgrades in the Merrylands Town Centre and includes road and drainage improvements and an enhancement of the public domain and public car parking.

This project is proudly funded by the NSW Government through its NSW Public Spaces Legacy Program and in association with Cumberland City Council.

Ramadan Street Food Festival 2022 all wrapped up

Thousands flocked to Auburn for the Ramadan Street Food Festival on 23 April. After a two-year hiatus, the festival was hailed a success attracting visitors from all across Sydney and within the Cumberland community as crowds gathered to celebrate Ramadan.

The event featured a huge line up of over 15 street food stalls which provided a delectable range of cuisines, serving up an array of traditional and exotic foods including; African fusion food, pizza, Turkish kofte rolls, falafel and kebabs, vegan Egyptian street food, souvlaki wraps and more.

There was also a community tent where guests were able to mingle, take photos and engage with local Councillors. A group of talented musicians entertained crowds with the Nasheed and the Rahma Mosque Guildford drummers also kept the atmosphere lively with their traditional music.

Mayor Lisa Lake said the event was a wonderful opportunity for Council to support the cultural diversity of our community and share in the spirit of Ramadan.

"Council is very proud to have hosted this vibrant family-friendly community event that saw hundreds unite to share in the Ramadan spirit of peace and kindness."

"Ramadan is an important time of year for our community, I thank all that were involved in making this event a success."

This festival was proudly funded by the NSW Government's The Festival Of Place Open Streets program.
