

People in Artwork & Privacy Legislation 'permission to publish'

- If your artwork depicts a person, you need their permission to exhibit it.
- The artwork may be reproduced in publications.
- In consideration of privacy legislation, we ask that if you include an individual or a small group of people and that person is identifiable in your artwork, you ask each person to sign this release.

I give my permission that the artwork produced depicting me by (name of photographer):

on (date) : _____, may be entered in the 2020 Cumberland Art Awards. I give permission for it to be used in public exhibition and publication.

Name of the person(s) being depicted: _____

Signature: _____